

Alena Šimončíčová

Mrs Alena Šimončíčová works at the National Security Authority as the director of Physical and Building Security Section since October 2002, i.e. almost from the establishment of the Authority.

She was born in 1963 in Modra, Slovakia. She is married and has one son. She studied at the Grammar school and graduated from Slovak technical university in 1988.

She worked in the Fire research institute Ministry of Interior of the Slovak Republic as a head of a section.

During her work in a private company Pyrokontrol, she was appointed as the head of a crisis management section and was responsible for the protection of classified information of the company.

Later she worked at the department of technical means at the national security office at Ministry of Interior of the Slovak Republic where she worked on the establishment of a system of protection of classified information in the SR.

She has participated in several workshops and trainings.