

Miroslava Milenović

Company: PricewaterhouseCoopers

Position: Senior Manager in Business Advisory Services

Date of Birth: 11. 06.1963.

Miroslava has more than 13 years of experience in international and domestic administration, finance and accounting, including tax regulations and finance advisory and consulting services. She dealt with registration, audit, accounting and financial control of international and domestic companies. Miroslava has worked as a tax consultant for embassies, foreign representative offices and NGOs. She is an expert advisor on tax regulations.

During 2002 Miroslava acted as Head of the Utilities Restructuring Unit within the Ministry of Finance. In this role she reported directly to the Minister of Finance and through industries, to the Minister of Transport/Telecomm and the Minister of Energy. This role brought an in-depth understanding of the various challenges relating to the restructuring of utilities, as well as expertise in commercial and political restrictions and realities of the transition process. As the Head of the Restructuring Unit, she acquired in-depth financial and operational information from various utilities and was able to support and advise the CEO's and decision-makers implement their business plan.

Early in 2003, she joined PricewaterhouseCoopers Belgrade, where continues her work on utility restructuring and development, both via large top-down projects and grassroots training programs.

Membership in Professional Societies:

- The Association of Accountants and Auditors of Serbia – Certified Accountant
- International Comparative Accounting Association – Member of Executive Board
- Register of Court Experts – Expert for Economics and Finance field